SALES AT AUCTION. A - FRENCH MASTERPIECES,

MR. AARON HEALY'S COLLECTION OF OIL PAINTINGS. FREE EXHIBITION, DAY AND EVENING, AT THE FIFTH AVENUE ART GALLERIES,

NO. 366 5TH AV., NEAR 34TH ST. "Troyon is represented in Mr. Healy's collection by that superb and important late sunset The Return to the Farm' and a capital little 'Sheep in Pasture.' Roussaut's large 'apringtime Near Barbison' is. like the first Troyon, hors ligne. A smaller work is of little consequence. Of van Marke there are three admirable examples, free from that paintiness which marred his work in later years. The beautiful study of 'A Normandy Buil' is good enough to be a Troyon.

"The three Daubignys are of more than the avera quality, and so is the single Corot. There are five Diaze the figure example dated 1896 being very good. One the three Dupres, the Landscape, with Cattle, is a per among paintings, with its glimpse up the creek, its dance, its sky and its, admirably disposed group kneeling cattle.

"A capital Knaus is the amusing scene, with boy bathers, called The Truant, and an early and good Garomo represents Treading Out Wheat in Egypt, Gallait's interesting Last Honors Fald Counts Egmont and Horn' is a reduction of the large work owned by the Belgian government. There is a good Fromentin, Arab Shepherds; a fine little Millet, The Shepherdess; an excellent Jacques. The Coming Storm, and a little Aubort, 'Confidences,' which looks like a Hamon.'
